Our medium or 'mid' term lettings are properties that are more flexible than a traditional tenancy. For instance all bills are included in our mid term prices and are fully furnished as standard meaning you just need to bring your clothes and stock up the fridge! Some of our properties are even available for as little as one month! So if you are waiting for a house sale to complete, having renovation work done at home or just in town for a job contract, give us a call and we'll help you find somewhere to call your home away from home.
